If you are reading this article, it is likely that you have already discovered our new feature on Mission Control. We often assume that all active players of Alien Worlds or Mission Control are members of either their respective Discord or Telegram channels. However, when we examine the user numbers in these channels, we realize that this is far from the truth. To make it easier for all players to access Alien Worlds news, we have added updates from the most active Alien Worlds Medium blogs to our website.

If you did not already come from our website and want to check out the new feature, simply log in to <https://waxmissioncontrol.io/> and navigate to the main menu. In the public section, you will find the 'News' tab. As of the time of writing, we have three news sources: Official Alien Worlds, Mission Control, and the Interplanetary Federation.

If you own or are aware of other active Alien Worlds Medium blogs, please don't hesitate to contact our team in Discord to inquire about the possibility of adding them to our site.
